Verhalen's Vision

Mr. Kliever, our new music teacher, held an informational meeting for students and parents interested in taking a trip to Washington DC and New York City. Over 20 families were in attendance and got to hear about Mr. Kliever's experience when he took this trip with Maple Creek. Although the trip is expensive, the experience is priceless and it is much more cost effective than trying to do it on your own.

Progress reports went home Friday and this is a good litmus test of your child's progress for the first 6 weeks of school. If you have any questions or concerns, contact your child's teacher to see what is going on. Parent conferences are around the corner but there is no need to wait if you have concerns.

Thank you also to all of the families who are working hard to make our jog a thon a success. We have one more week to turn in money to see if the students reach their goal and make me eat worms!

Always do what's right,
Matt Verhalen
