Verhalen's Vision

The Giants in the Sky is over, but what a day at Lincoln. Directed by Linda Mesrobian and Laura Wilson, the last few months tells you the dedication by our teachers and students. I am so proud of the quality of the program our teachers put on year after year. A big thank you both ladies. I loved the personal dance at the end that you did together and so did your kids. Our K-3rd grade got to see the first full show and they loved it. Then with a 15-minute rest, the 4th-6th grade got their own private viewing of the play. Our Lincoln kids improved each time they had a chance to perform, and the Thursday night show was by far the best. Congratulations to all our young actors and actresses. The quality of this play was due in a huge part to your faithful perseverance and grit over a long period of time.

Also adding to the evening was a larger MPR that allowed everyone to easily fit with a few seats left over. A special thanks to our PTC. Our new sound system allowed us to mic eight students at a time and control the sound levels from the back of the MPR on an iPad. I may be a bit biased, but I think the ability to hear most of the play was the best yet in my six years at Lincoln.

Parents we are entering our State Testing window so remember a couple of things that will support your students' success. Early to bed and a good solid breakfast will help your children stay focused.

Always do what's right,
Matt Verhalen
