Verhalen's Vision

We had a very exciting week at Lincoln this week from book give-aways to nightcrawler consumption. We had a great turnout at Literacy Night on Thursday night and many families enjoyed a great meal together. We learned the importance of having our children read EVERY night- the more they read, the better reader they will be. Our teachers were on hand to help give parents strategies to guide their children in learning reading strategies and the students were able to play games, take home free books, and listen to a story from Mr. Incredible himself.

On Friday, I was forced to eat some very juicy nightcrawlers (worms) due to all of the hard work that our students put in to meet our Jog-a-Thon fundraising goal. The students enjoyed giving me recipes and ideas all week about how to prepare them- everything from worm tacos to worm churros. It tasted.....very difficult to put in words, so let's just say "NOT GOOD" juicy/sour. I'm going to be honest, I actually woke up at 3am and couldn't go back to sleep because I started thinking about eating worms. It was definitely a fun/not fun week to be a Lincoln Lion!

Always do what's right,
Matt Verhalen
