Verhalen's Vision

On Thursday night Mac and Lions celebrated our diverse culture at Lincoln Elementary. The Bangor girls did an excellent job on a PowerPoint presentation about India. They were dressed in traditional garb and did an amazing job of sharing the highlights of life in India. They returned there in 2017 for a family wedding and the presentation included pictures of the girls spending time in India. Mrs. Goudy and Mrs. Whitney always do an amazing job of checking in with every family to find out their heritage. Each family brought their own food and some of it was from their own culture. I met a new family to Lincoln from Iran. They have a second grader that is learning English very quickly. She absolutely loves being at Lincoln. It is new families like this that come and share their cultural background that makes Lincoln such a special place. All of this cultural diversity at Lincoln brings richness and makes America great. Thanks again to Lina Goudy and Carol Whitney for sharing your passion and setting up these amazing nights. If you've never been to one of these nights, I challenge you next year to join us at the Mac and Lions night.

Always do what's right,
Matt Verhalen

This magical story explores the world of Giants who live above the clouds. Ever since they left Earth a long time ago, the Giants have made a life up above where their job is to keep the sky beautiful. They polish the stars, poke the clouds to let it rain and paint the sunsets. But there is one curious Giant who wonders what life is like on Earth, so she steals a key to the locked up "beanstalk" and embarks on an adventure down below!
