Verhalen's Vision

As we begin the new year, we have had many challenges. Any student, parent, or teacher can see this by just walking across the campus. Personally, I think porta-potties say it all. Teachers got into their rooms at the last second, so there was a rush to get ready. The multi-purpose room and main office will remain under construction into November. Yet because of the dedication, hard work, and perseverance of our teachers, custodians, and office staff, we were ready to rock on the first day of school.

Lincoln also started the year with five new teachers and a new school nurse. In third grade we have Mrs. Dupras, 4th grade Mr. Stetler, and in 6th grade Mrs. Pirok. Our music department saw the addition of Mr. Kliever in Choir and Mrs. Olson in Strings. We will be sharing our new nurse, Mrs. England, with Fort Washington.

The Lincoln staff started the year with a majority of our teachers attending a Kagan conference that will help with student engagement and relationship building. Many teachers have already put what they learned into practice this week!

The Lincoln staff is looking forward to a great 2017-18 school year.

Always Do What's Right,
Matt Verhalen
