Verhalen's Vision

I just walked away from our 2nd Mac and Lions of the year. All I can say is that Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Goudy put together a great multicultural experience. There was food prepared from home that represented 17 different cultures. I hope I don't hurt any feelings, but I need to tell you that I had food I have never tasted before. An Iranian rice with chicken and spices that I want every night, a humus from Lebanon that I can't buy in the store but would if I could, a jerk chicken from Jamaica that I begged for the recipe, a very lemony/potato/vegetable from Peru, Mexican rice and lentils, chocolate from Africa, and a homemade sausage from Germany. I know I'm missing something but where else can you go in Fresno for such a meal?

We started off the night with students speaking in their native language then telling us what they said in English, finished off with teaching the whole group of 90ish people how to say hello in their native language. We then all ate while two students shared a PowerPoint from Jamaica and Senegal. Then a former Lincoln student, Loren Kong, lead a martial arts demonstration with 4 of our young lions. It makes me smile to see all these cultures mix and mingle at Lincoln and thoroughly enjoy the evening. If you have not been to a Mac and Lions Night we will have one more in March. I would not miss it for all the spaghetti in Italy.

Always do what's right,
Matt Verhalen
